Mansfield Boosters Building the Ozark Trail

Getting Busy at Mansfield

The above picture shows how the Mansfield people started out to make good the pledges made at the good roads meeting July 8. With the county engine, district grader, several teams and a number of men busy, much work has been done on the road between here and Springfield.

Considerable good road work has been done in this vicinity during the week under the auspices of the commissioners of the Mansfield Special Road District. We must have that road!

Wednesday, Aug. 11, has been named as the day for a general road working between Licking and Rogersville. Everyone, from the towns and from the farms, is urged to help that day, the auto owners furnishing transportation, the ladies furnishing dinner, and everyone working the roads, making the day one big time for the Ozark Trail.

Mountain Grove Working

Hon. W.S. Candler of Mountain Grove, chairman of the executive committee to supervise the promotion work of the St. Louis-Springfield highway through Wright county, writes under date of July 16:

"We are at work along our St. Louis-Springfield highway—had 100 business men and farmers out Wednesday with two graders—put up about 1 1/2 miles of graded road. We are expecting to set a day along about Aug. 11, when we will work the road from Springfield to Licking. We are getting ready for a big day at Rolla or Salem."

To Have Stock Show

At a meeting of the Young Men's Business Club at the G. A. R. Hall Friday night it was decided that Mansfield's Fourth Annual Agricultural and Stock Show would be held this fall.

Dr. F. H. Riley, W. A. Black, Geo. B. Freeman, O. L. Robinett and J. D. Reynolds were named as the members of the executive committee.

The executive committee met this morning and set the date—Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 7, 8 and 9, 1915.

Dr. F. H. Riley, chairman of the executive committee, will call a meeting next week, at which time committees will be appointed and arrangements made to make this year's show the biggest and best ever held.

The K. C., O. & S. Suit

The hearing of the case in the suit of August Hoover and Claud Vrooman, of Springfield, against the Kansas City, O. & S. Southern Railroad, which has been in progress before Judge Guy D. Kirby in division No. 1 of circuit court the last two weeks, was closed yesterday. The arguments will not be heard until July 30.

Messrs. Heman and Vrooman are suing for $90,000, claimed by them to be the amount of four notes. The Third National Bank of Sedalia, the Sedalia National Bank and J. B. Quigley are intervenors, claiming the payments the plaintiffs alleged they made for the railroad were paid toward the capital stock and not by lending money to the road.

The Third National Bank holds a judgment for $2,300, and also capital stock, amounting to $10,000, which is a collateral on loans. The Sedalia National Bank holds $50,000 in capital stock but Mr. Quigley claims that part of the stock claimed by the bank is owned by him and is a collateral for loans. He alleges the road is indebted to him approximately $10,000.

The three intervenors are asking that they be allowed their claims before the court. The two plaintiffs are allowed a Springfield Republic, July 21.

Assistance Appreciated

R. L. Alford, secretary of Mansfield Lodge, No. 116, I. O. O. F., is in receipt of the following letter, written July 18 by E. R. Aubrey at Drumright, Okla.

"I certainly appreciate the kindness you brethren, as Odd Fellows, showed my wife while she was seemingly in peril and need, while at Cabool, Mo., if she had known it, money was awaiting her. But misfortunes strikes all of us and I am glad there were some Odd Fellows there, and through the lodge I desire to thank the blacksmith (E. E. Short) for his Good Samaritan deed. My wife wrote me his hired smith (R. R. Wright) is an Odd Fellow, but that he is not. He will receive his money for the work. My wife offered to pay him after she got her money, and he said, 'No,' she might need it. That is a Good Samaritan act. May God bless your lodge and every member. Some time it may be my lot to meet with you. I have been down sick for 10 days but am able to get up now."

It will be remembered that Mrs. Aubrey and five children were here last week enroute to Hunter, where they had bought a farm. Mr. Aubrey was still at Drumright, Okla., working. Mrs. Aubrey's funds became exhausted here, on account of extra expense incident to repairing her wagon. Upon learning that her husband was an Odd Fellow, Mr. Alford notified his home lodge, who telegraphed $10. Such acts of helpfulness exemplify the true spirit of Odd Fellowship.

The Roberts & Elder Canning Company unloaded a car of tomatoes for use in canning tomatoes. They expect to receive another car about Aug. 15, and a car a week while the season is at its height. There are 42,000 cans in a car.

The company has about 100 acres of tomatoes contracted and expect to can from 12 to 14 cars of tomatoes. Their experience in the business guarantees an excellent product and one that will find a ready market.

This industry will mean much to our people, and we wish Messrs. Roberts and Elder a successful season. They expect to begin canning Aug. 2.

Christian Endeavor Program

July 25, C. P. Church.
Subject, "Christ in Me," John 15:1-11.

Leader, Froma Rippee.

What is meant by "dwelling in Christ?" J. D. Inman.

What change is made in a life when Christ dwells there? Mrs. Eliza Peters.

How are Christians like branches of the vine, which is Christ? G. W. Freeman.

If Christ once enters our life, how may we drive Him out again? J. C. Carter.

Name some Bible characters in whom Christ dwelt. Velma Hyton, Lois Beach, Alice Tomblison.

Name some characters outside the Bible in whom Christ dwelt. Opal Hoover, Lula Riley, Ora Rippee.

How does Christ's indwelling aid us in the struggle against sin and temptation? J. D. Reynolds.

How can we make the thought of Christ's indwelling real to us? Rev. Joseph Davis.

Who Is It?

A St. Paul, Minn., dispatch in the Springfield Leader says Larue West, accompanying the body of Violet West, believed to be his dead wife, arrived there Sunday, from Forsyth, Mont., and disappeared, leaving the remains, which had been consigned to Mansfield, Mo., but with no marks on the casket cover to indicate to whom the body was shipped.

No such persons ever lived here, nor are they known here, so far as we have been able to ascertain. It is probable the body was consigned here by mistake.

A later report solves the mystery. The body had been consigned to Marshfield, Mrs. West's former home, and Mr. West, thinking the body had been properly transferred, came on to Springfield before he found out that the body had not been transferred at St. Paul.
